INTERSTATE COMMISSION ANNOUNCES FINDINGS ON DISASTER AT SHEPHERDSVILLE.

Responsibility for the rear-end collision on the Louisville & Nashville railroad at Shepherdsville, Ky., on December 20, in which forty-nine were killed and fifty-two injured, was assigned by the Interstate Commerce Commission to negligence of the conductor and flagman of the telescoped train and the failure of the engineer of the express that crashed into it to observe a signal. The railroad already has assumed full responsibility for the loss of life and invited the filing of damage claims without litigation.

TURK

THROUGH SULTAN'S SUBJECT LONGED TO FIGHT KAISER.

(By International News Service.)

New Haven, Conn., Feb. 28.—Tears streamed down the cheeks of a powerfully built subject of the Ottoman empire who entered a local recruiting station and was turned away when he announced his wish to enter the army of Uncle Sam. "I have no love for the Sultan," he said, "and I want to fight against him and his boss, the Kaiser." He could not be accepted because he had never been naturalized.

DESERTER RETURNS TO FIGHT.

(By International News Service.)

Connellsville, Pa., Feb. 28.—Saying the "country needs more men," William V. Curry, of Marysville, Ky., gave himself up to the Police Lieutenant Thomas McDonald as a deserter from the United States marine corps.

Curry says he ran away from his division at Newport News, Va., in August 1916. Since the outbreak of the war with Germany he said that he has been constantly tortured by remorse, and when he heard of the sinking of the Tuscania he could stand it no longer. "The country needs more men," he said, "and I might as well be back if Uncle Sam will have me."

DRILLS REPLACE DANCES.

(By International News Service.)

Washington, Feb. 28.—Off with the fox-trot and on with the march! Mars has double-crossed Terpsichore, and maids of the National Capital are putting.

Just when everything was so lovely and everybody was having such a good time, along comes the War Department and takes over practically all the dance halls in Washington for use as armories and department bureaus.

CAVE WOMAN

MOTHER OF "LOVE CHILD" IS PRONOUNCED INSANE.

(By International News Service.)

Eau Claire, Wis., Feb. 28.—Violet Leigh, forty-nine, poet and genius, according to her own assertions, and who had been living in a cave, was declared insane. Among the things introduced in evidence at her trial were letters of infatuation she wrote to a former minister at Altoona. She had adopted a young child, and in one of the letters declared that the youngster was the "love child" of herself and the minister.

YOUTH

PLACES SKIRT ON "ART" BEFORE HE JOINS NAVY.

(By International News Service.)

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 28.—"I've come 400 miles to enlist in the navy," said a young man as he entered the naval recruiting office. "Well, you can't join—not with that woman on your arm," replied the officer, pointing to the tattooed reproduction of "September Morn."

An hour later the young man returned. Miss September was wearing a peg-top skirt of the latest fashion. Half an hour later he walked out of the examination room, a member of the navy at last.

JOHN RILEY

Newstead Youth Sustains Fracture of His Leg.

John W. Riley, Jr., son of Capt. J. W. Riley, a student at the Newstead school, 14 years of age, had one of his legs broken at the ankle Thursday at the noon recess while driving a pony. In some way the cart turned over and caused the injury. His father was in town and left at once with a Hopkinsville physician to assist the local doctor in rendering aid, and the boy's injury is not complicated.
